As you may be aware, the extremely severe cyclone “Fani” wrecked havoc in Odisha throwing life out of gear. While disaster preparedness has minimised human casualty, it has brought untold misery to people by damaging houses, uprooting trees, severely damaging telecom towers, snapping power supply and causing stoppage of water supply, etc.

One of the victims of the fury of Fani is Padmashree Shri D Prakash Rao, a tea seller in Cuttack. He is running a school upto Class III standard for slum area children from income generated from his tea stall. He is also one of the highest blood donors in Asia and had donated blood for more than 216 times. In recognition of his extraordinary dedication to social welfare initiatives, he was awarded Padmashree in 2018.

Unfortunately, the roof of Shri Rao house blown away by Fani. In this difficult time of such an inspiring person, we appeal all to contribute generously under Good Samaritan Initiative for helping Shri Rao to quickly restoring his damaged house. The estimate cost of repairing is around Rs. 1,00,000.
